

Nearly Naked Nymphs & Somewhat Sexy Studs: of Dancing With the Stars

If selected, TT will write write a book with the title here about his DWTS experiences. The focus will be on the pros, the actual stars of the show. Additionally he will investigate the business plan of DWTS, why some pros disappear then sometimes reappear in subsequent seasons. Why did ratings for DWTS slump after being the top reality show on TV? Are the apparent solutions solving the problem or making them worse; e.g., why was the popular band dismissed along with a fine hostess? Why does DWTS cater to a dubious demographic. Why, of all things, did DWTS reduce the length of dances by half? Dancing is why folks watch DWTS. As a star TT would make Dance is romance in motion his motto. Read about his struggles and frustrations to be selected, principally because no agent has appeared to represent him. But he has been nominated to represent 40,000 Purple Heart recipients and will not quit. An Airborne/Ranger never does.
