

The Galleries Book: Contemporary Art Galleries in London

How do you find out about contemporary art? Which are the important galleries of the moment? This innovative book, created to accompany an exhibition at the Royal Academy of Art, London, provides an invaluable resource for anyone interested in breaking into the mysterious world of cutting-edge art and art galleries in London. More than 30 important galleries, ranging from small artist-run spaces to internationally renowned venues, are featured, with maps showing their whereabouts. Each gallery has provided details of its own history and philosophy, the kind of artists it represents--with reproductions of their newest works in all mediums--and useful contact information. This book, which will be regularly updated, is designed to become the indispensable constant companion of all hip urban art lovers when in London.
